FOOD PANTRY

2018 Annual Report

Our Mission

To give food with kindness and compassion to those seeking assistance while providing an opportunity for volunteers to serve their neighbors in Charlottesville and surrounding communities.

Dear Friends,

I am pleased to welcome you to the Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry 2018 Annual Report. We continue to touch the lives of many in our community through our mission to provide clients with food and our volunteers with the opportunity to serve.

In a community as vibrant and advantaged as we enjoy in the Charlottesville area, it is easy to be unaware of the financial struggles and food insecurity that some people experience. It is humbling to know how much it means to individuals and families to have access to quality and healthy groceries.

At our annual retreat the Board of Directors and staff reviewed and updated our strategic plan. We all agreed that our original mission remains as strong and relevant as ever. "To give food with kindness and compassion to those seeking assistance while providing an opportunity for volunteers to serve their neighbors in Charlottesville and surrounding communities."

Group volunteering helps businesses achieve community outreach goals

Loaves & Fishes is in a strong position to continue to carry out our mission thanks to the ongoing generosity of our volunteers, donors, and community partners, and to the commitment of our dedicated staff and Board of Directors. We truly appreciate all you do.

It is a privilege to be a part of this wonderful Loaves & Fishes organization.

With Gratitude,
Sue Wells Sargeant

Volunteer Program Updates

Beginning in January 2018, Tracy Arbaugh, a long-time volunteer who was instrumental in setting up Loaves & Fishes' VolunteerHub online volunteer scheduling system, joined Nancy-Lee Kozub as our second part-time Volunteer Coordinator (working a total of 20 hours together). Nancy-Lee, Loaves & Fishes' first employee, had juggled scheduling volunteer help to run the pantry since 2009, and what an amazing job she did! Over the next eight months, Nancy-Lee and Tracy worked together, with Tracy managing group volunteer reservations and learning everything from Nancy-Lee's long tenure and wealth of experience. Nancy-Lee's last day working for Loaves & Fishes was September 1, 2018, making her retirement almost simultaneous with her retirement from teaching Spanish and French for Albemarle Co. Public Schools. While Nancy-Lee still volunteers at Intake from time to time, she is enjoying a well-deserved break and lots of time with her 16-month-old great nephew! As Loaves & Fishes' 20-hour-a-week Volunteer Coordinator, Tracy now ensures that 175 volunteer positions are filled each week, including 28 positions for each food distribution, trains volunteers on our Link2Feed Intake database (see below), and helps business, church, and school groups schedule volunteer activities that are a great way to build camaraderie!

Link2Feed Intake Database

In July 2018, at the request of the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank, Loaves & Fishes started using Link2Feed as our client "intake" or registration database. Link2Feed is an internet-based database that standardizes how food pantries like Loaves & Fishes track who is receiving food, and when. The Blue Ridge Area Food Bank's goal is for all food pantries in their distribution network to start tracking clients using Link2Feed, which will help the food bank get a better picture of where food insecure people are within (and outside) their service area. Link2Feed also gathers important demographic information on the people Loaves & Fishes serves, including amount and source(s) of monthly income, other benefits received (Medicaid, free or reduced school lunch, SNAP), languages spoken, and ethnicity, and will help us determine how to improve our program. Implementing Link2Feed also has helped Loaves & Fishes refine our monthly delivery program and reduce our deliveries from 175 households at Crescent Halls, Midway Manor, and other areas around Charlottesville to 75 households.

Client Gratitude

Clients select groceries with assistance from client guide volunteers

I came to Loaves and Fishes last week. I could not believe the kindness. I have never been in this situation before, so this was all very new to me. The intake person was very respectful and compassionate, even to coming to my car and giving me a hug when I was leaving.

The food was healthy and greatly appreciated.

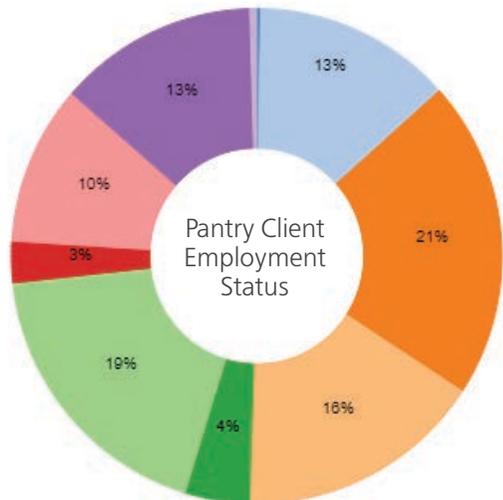

I am not sure why it was so hard. Maybe because when my husband was alive, we were the givers not the receivers. When things turn around for me, I hope to be able to come and volunteer with your wonderful organization. Everything is in God's hands as he has a plan and I know it will all be fine in a few months.

Thank you for being a blessing for folks who are going through a rough patch.

Does it surprise you that the majority of our clients who are able to work are employed but still meet the USDA definition for people who are food-insecure? Many have multi-generational households and struggle to provide for all of their family members.

A Message from the Executive Director

Thank you for supporting Loaves & Fishes Food Pantry in 2018. Loaves & Fishes has grown significantly since Jerry Denney founded it as a mission of Charlottesville's First United Methodist Church in 2004: from packing bags of shelf-stable food that recipients would pick up from an afterschool classroom at Jackson-Via Elementary School, to becoming a USDA distribution partner of the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank at a bigger, rented facility on Greenbrier Drive, to owning our own facility at 2050 Lambs Road where clients can shop for the fresh, frozen, and nonperishable foods they want. I am very proud of the work Loaves & Fishes is able to do with financial and volunteer support from our community. We could not feed almost 60,000 children, adults, and seniors each year without your help.

Blue Ridge Area Food Bank, and developed informational materials in Spanish, Farsi, and Arabic. We implemented the Link2Feed client registration database (see page 3) and started a Grab-a-Bag Friday food program for students in need at Woodbrook Elementary School with First United Methodist Church and Woodbrook staff. We continue to develop partnerships with other area social service agencies to ensure that anyone in our community who needs food knows they can come to Loaves & Fishes.

In 2018, Loaves & Fishes began purchasing eggs and fish to provide alternate protein sources for Muslim and vegetarian visitors, gave turkeys to every household visiting in November, thanks to the

Additionally, with a grant from The Perry Foundation that was matched 1:1 by 10 individual/family, foundation, and business gifts, Loaves & Fishes expanded pantry work and storage space when we installed a canopy over our loading dock that protects from the elements our greatest asset: the food we pick up five days/week from six different local grocers and that is delivered by the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank. We also were able to install a permanent building sign, correct drainage issues in the parking lot, and upgrade our waiting room chairs with a donation from the UVa Real Estate Foundation when the Cavalier Inn was demolished.

In 2019, we are continuing our outreach in the community and connecting with households that may need food. We are working to address barriers to accessing food, particularly transportation to the pantry and language barriers that may prevent some from seeking our assistance.

We thank you for your continued support and, as always, our doors are open to you. I love giving tours – please reach out if you would like to see first-hand what your support makes possible.

With many thanks,

Nothing goes to waste. About 2% of the food the Pantry receives is not suitable for distribution to our clients. Farmers pick it up weekly to feed their livestock.

Herb Heroy

Volunteer Hero, Herb Heroy

Loaves & Fishes “super volunteer” Herb Heroy has logged a whopping 840 hours in VolunteerHub since we started tracking hours online in September 2017, but the actual number of hours he has dedicated to the smooth running of our pantry numbers in the thousands. Why? “I like working with the other volunteers, showing them how to do things, and being with people,” says Herb, who managed 300 people during 27 years as a road superintendent for Seminole County, Florida. As the leader of the sorting and restocking shifts every Tuesday and Thursday and shift leader, Herb has mentored and trained many, many volunteers and the strong relationships he has developed with other volunteers shows: the same 3-5 volunteers sign up to sort food every Tuesday or Thursday because they get to work alongside Herb.

While he doesn't talk about it much, Herb has a fascinating background: early in his career, he surveyed the land where Disney World would be built, he is (almost) certified to fly solo, and Herb is a great animal lover. While some know the name of his farm, Stubborn Ass Acres, comes from his business of breeding and raising donkeys (and goats), Herb's roots in rural Manassas means he always has had animals - horses (he met his wife Beverly at his weekend job saddling 200 horses on her uncle's horse farm), apes, indigo snakes - they even at one point had 10 baby alligators in their bathtub (“they ate $5 worth of goldfish every day,” says Herb). A charter member of the North American Saddle Mule and Donkey Association, Herb once had 19 donkeys. He and Bev still have two donkeys - 21-year-old August, who he brought back from Florida in 1999, and her daughter, 8-year-old Isabella.

Thank you, Herb, for all you give Loaves & Fishes and the legacy of care you give to our volunteers!

“The support to our community from Loaves & Fishes has always personally impressed me. Many within our church have volunteered and shared how the experience impacted them deeply. As a church member, I have had the opportunity to learn many other great things that are occurring within and through Loaves & Fishes that may not be seen initially.

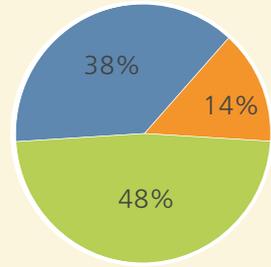

This spring, I became a proxy individual to pick up food for a family in need. From the first moment I arrived at Loaves & Fishes, to then going to all the food stations, and finally heading back to my vehicle, I felt cared for and supported. The two guides who assisted me were amazing. I learned it was only their first and second times serving, which surprised me since they were so well informed. It was amazing to experience first hand what this type of support means to those in need within our community!
